

LET GOD SPEAK HIS WORD IS AUTHORITY

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	1
INTRODUCTION	13
CHAPTER 1: INSPIRATION	17
1.1 INTRODUCTION	17
1.1.1 The Need for an Authoritative Document.....	17
A. Old Testament	17
B. New Testament.....	19
1.1.2 Criteria for an Authoritative Document.....	21
A. Old Testament	21
B. New Testament.....	21
1.1.3 Derivation of the CANON	23
A. Old Testament	23
B. New Testament.....	24
1.2 INSPIRATION: ITS MEANING	24
1.3 INSPIRATION AND METHOD.....	27
1.3.1 Introduction.....	27
1.3.2 Dictation.....	28
A. Personal research.....	29
B. Quoting from other books of the OT	29
C. Constant use of the first person	30
D. Variation in style:.....	30
E. Frequent reference to personal experiences.....	30
1.3.3 Accommodation.....	31

1.3.4 Supervision.....	32
1.3.5 Conclusion	32
1.4 CRITERIA TO DETERMINE INSPIRATION.....	33
1.4.1 Intrinsic content.....	33
1.4.2 Ethical and Spiritual effect.....	33
1.4.3 Historic testimony of the church.....	34
1.4.4 Conclusion: FAITH.....	34
1.5 INSPIRATION AND THE ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPHS.....	35
1.6 INSPIRATION AND OUR TRANSLATIONS TODAY.....	36
1.6.1 Textual Criticism.....	36
1.6.2 Textual transmission	37
A. Old Testament autographs.....	37
B. New Testament autographs	39
1.6.3 Recovering the original text for today.....	39
A. Old Testament autographs.....	40
B. New Testament autographs	41
C. Summarising	42
D. A SUFFICIENT Bible.....	43
1.6.4 Reliability of our current translations.....	44
1.6.5 Conclusion.....	46
1.7 INSPIRATION, INFALLIBILITY, INERRANCY AND AUTHORITY	46
1.7.1 Infallible:.....	46
1.7.2 Inerrant:.....	47
1.7.3 Authoritative.....	48
1.8. THE INERRANCY DEBATE.....	48
1.8.1 Historic testimony concerning inerrancy	48
A. Irenaeus (130-202 A.D.):.....	48
B. Augustine (345 - 430 A.D.):.....	48
E. Luther (1483 - 1546 A.D.):.....	49
D. Calvin (1509 - 1564 A.D.):.....	49
E. Wesley (1703 - 1791 A.D.):.....	49
1.8.2 Reaction to apparent errors	50

A. Augustine’s response.....	51
B. Luther’s response.....	51
C. A personal challenge	51
1.8.3 The inerrancy debate in the modern era.....	52
A. Verbal inspiration.....	53
B. Dynamic inspiration.	53
C. The battle for the Bible.....	53
CHAPTER 2: HERMENEUTICS.....	55
2.1 DEFINITION.....	55
2.2 THE PREMISE.....	55
2.3 CLARIFICATION FROM THE PREMISE.....	56
2.3.1 A literal interpretation should not be confused with a literalistic interpretation.....	56
2.3.2 A literal interpretation should not be confused with literal application	58
2.3.3 A literal interpretation should not be confused with literal translation	60
A. A literal translation is essential to understand Scripture and to enable any satisfactory exegesis. (See worked exegesis examples later).....	61
B. Dynamic Equivalents.....	63
2.3.4 A literal interpretation does not create any tension with figures of speech.....	68
2.3.5 SPECIAL CASE of a FIGURE OF SPEECH.....	59
2.4 INTERPRETATION METHODS	73
2.4.1 #1: MYTHOLOGICAL INTERPRETATION	74
Liberal position.....	74
2.4.2 #2 ALLEGORICAL INTERPRETATION.....	65
Neo-orthodox position, crisis theology, etc.....	75
A. Definitions.....	76
B. Comments on the definition	76
C. Explanation.....	77
D. General Dangers of Allegorical Interpretation.....	67

E. Particular Dangers of Allegorical Interpretation.....	85
2.4.3 #3 LITERAL INTERPRETATION	95
Conservative Evangelicals.....	95
A. Definition.....	95
B. Defence of literal interpretation.....	95
C. Advantages of the literal method.....	89
2.4.4 COMPARATIVE EXAMPLE OF THE THREE METHODS OF INTERPRETATION	100
A. Mythological:	100
B. Allegorical:	100
C. Literal:.....	100
CHAPTER 3: EXEGESIS	101
3.1 INTRODUCTION	101
3.2 THE PREMISE OF EXEGESIS	103
3.3 THE NEED FOR EXEGESIS.....	104
Tommy and his family	104
3.4 DEFINING EXEGESIS	105
3.5 THE AIM OF EXEGESIS	106
3.6 EXAMPLES OF THE NEED	107
3.6.1 Winsome Wives	107
3.6.2 Second Coming	108
3.6.3 Jesus' divinity	110
3.6.4 The significance of "dew"	110
3.6.5 Examples of the use of tenses in exegesis.....	112
A. 2 Corinthians 5:17	112
B. Romans 6:6	113
C. 1 John 3: 10, 14-15.	114
3.7 EXEGESIS METHODOLOGY	115
Practical example of perceptions:	119
3.8 THE PROCESS OF EXEGESIS.....	122
3.8.1 Introduction	122
3.8.2 Start with the book as a whole	122

3.8.3 Examine a synopsis of the book	130
A. Galatians.....	130
B. Hebrews.....	131
3.8.4 Take the section to be studied.....	136
A. #1 Example: Hebrews 5:11-6:6.....	136
B. #2 Example: Hebrews 11:1-12:2	137
3.8.5 Take an individual verse	139
A. Introduction.....	139
B. What are the contemporary circumstances?.....	139
C. What is the historical background?	140
D. What are the sources of the author?	140
E. What do individual words mean?	143
F. What contemporary biblical ideas and culture are used?.....	149
G. Compare Scripture with Scripture.....	150
H. Apply the foregoing principle to examples	156
3.8.6 WORKED EXAMPLES	157
A. #1 Hebrews 6:4-6 [referred to previously].....	157
B. #2 Hebrews 12:1-3	163
C. #3 1 Corinthians 11:3-16	165
D. #4 1 Corinthians 11: 17-34.....	182
3.9 PRACTICALITIES:	194
RECORDING YOUR RESEARCH.....	194
3.10 OTHER RESOURCES	200
BIBLIOGRAPHY	202
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.....	206
FURTHER READING	206

* * * * *